A summary of testimony as required by Section 33.040(C) shall be prepared at the County's expense.
- B. The County Court may affirm, reverse, or amend the decision under appeal, and may impose additional or different conditions as may be necessary to carry out its decision. The return shall contain specific instructions to the initial Review or Hearing Body regarding the nature and scope of its further consideration or action.
- C. The County Court shall make written findings and conclusions as part of its written decision. This document will constitute the final action of the County Court for appeal and other purposes.
- D. The County Court may cause supplemental or replacement findings and conclusions, based on the record for the decision, to be prepared and signed after the original findings and conclusions have been executed. When supplemental or replacement findings and conclusions are prepared and signed, this document shall constitute the final action of the County Court for appeal and other purposes in lieu of the original findings and conclusions.
- E. The County Court may open the record for clarification on a part of the record.
- F. The County Court by its own motion only, may choose to hear any appeal de novo. The decision to do so must be made within 10 days of receiving a statement of appeal.

33.100 - CONSOLIDATION OF APPEALS

In the event the final action for a single land use or land division is subject to concurrent appeals, the County Court is authorized to consolidate the appeals into a single proceeding. In this event, the Presiding Officer may modify the rules of procedure contained in this Chapter, or implement new rules, which facilitate the merger of the appeal applications and the taking of evidence, testimony and argument. The decision of the County Court or Appeal Board shall be documented in a single set of findings of fact which shall act as the formal decision and final action on all of the appeals for the purpose of further appeals.

33.110 - REMANDS - LAND USE BOARD OF APPEAL

In all cases, a copy of the opinion on remand shall be filed with the Planning Director to be included in the permanent file.

33.120 - PARTICIPATION IN LAND USE BOARD OF APPEAL (LUBA)

The County shall not generally participate in appeals filed with the LUBA. The response to an appeal shall be left to the party whose interests are, or may be, affected by a modification, reversal, or remand upon appeal. Only in those cases that represent a significant issue to the entire County, or establish a precedent that may be detrimental to County interests, will the County Court and the County Legal Counsel consider participating in a response.

33.130 - REHEARING

Remanded land use applications shall be subject to the following rules regarding rehearing:

- A. Only a party of record in the appeal to the LUBA appeal may initiate an application for rehearing before the County Court. The County Court reserves the right to initiate a rehearing by its own motion.
- B. Participation in the rehearing shall be strictly limited to those persons or organizations who were parties to the LUBA appeal. Therefore:
 - 1. Notice of the rehearing required by Article 32 shall be given only to persons who were parties to the LUBA appeal; and

- D. The rehearing shall be strictly limited to the ground or grounds specified in the LUBA decision for remand, and no evidence, testimony, or arguments shall be received on other issues, even if such issues were matters within the scope of the Court's original action.
- E. The rules otherwise governing applications, hearings, and appeals contained in Articles 30, 31, 32 and 33 shall control rehearings unless modified by the provisions of this Section.
- F. The party prevailing at the rehearing shall prepare the findings of fact necessary to support the decision upon rehearing.
